Q:How long do I get for winter break? What can I do?

A: We get almost a whole month for winter break! Some people go home and spend time with their families while others travel or stay on campus. People often relax, work, and spend time with friends.

-Katrina

While we do get a very long break, some people come back earlier than others. Students that play winter sports like hockey, indoor track, swimming, and basketball all have to come back a couple weeks early to play games and practice. Some sophomores also come back early to get help brainstorming what job they might want after college. The best part about break is that there is no homework!

Q: I'm worried I am going to forget everything, do I continue the same classes after the break?

A: In most cases, you don't continue the same classes after your winter break, but the content from past classes usually serves as a building block for future classes. At Bowdoin, we have two semesters in a school year and each semester we take 3 to 5 classes. At some schools you might have a trimester or quarter system, where you switch classes three or four times in a year. Don't worry, though, you usually remember the content because you get to choose your classes and are usually interested in them! -Saul

Q: Do students decorate their dorms as much as they do in Whoville (The Grinch)?

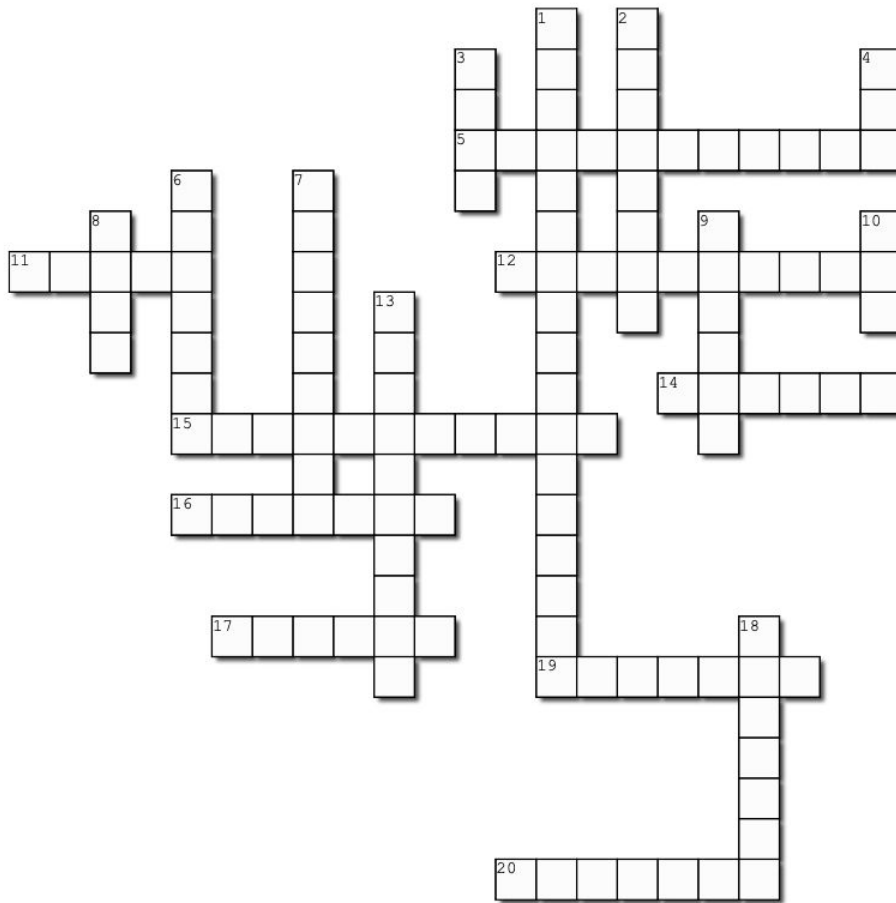

A: While some students decorate like the Whos 🎁🕯️ with big Christmas trees 🌲 and lots of fun decorations ❄️, other students decorate for Hanukkah 🕯️ or other holidays! Luckily, we don't often have Grinches that steal our decorations 🎉 or presents 🛍️ like in Whoville. -Jordyn
